

Result

The result of another transaction command.

The index of the previous command (0-indexed) that returned this result.

If the previous command returns multiple values, this is the index of the individual result among the multiple results from that command (also 0-indexed).

TransactionArgument union