The Move Book

Reserved addresses are special addresses that have a specific purpose on Sui. They stay the same between environments and are used for specific native operations.